What I hope to bring to the Board of Directors* (12 lines max.):

Building on my 25 years developing high performing teams in a complex and changing environment, I would like to contribute by joining the Board of Directors with my core values: respect, integrity and teamwork.

I believe in delegation and empowerment.

I also commit to foster diversity of thought through an open dialogue with the parents, the teachers, the school staff and partners.

Our school strives for excellence and student's well-being. It prepares them well for their future as citizens of the world.

We cannot rest on our laurels and should continue to further develop the school around its distinctive ethos and DNA:

- Enhance our language offering,
- Increase synergies between streams,
- Develop a culture of innovation and sustainable development.

All this while remaining an affordable school.
