What I hope to bring to the Board of Directors* (12 lines max.):

Thank you for considering my nomination to the FIS Board of Directors. I hope to bring the following to the Board of Directors:

- A continuation of my work as a Parent Representative, where I have had the opportunity to better understand issues facing the French and International Primary streams.
- Support for the IPC accreditation process currently underway in the International stream.
- A balanced outlook, which places the needs and views of FIS students/parents in both streams at the forefront of the Board of Director decision making process.
- Experience in sales, finance, and fund raising.
- Three years and personal time to commit to FIS and the Board of Directors.
- A love of FIS and what the school represents for my child and the French and International communities in Hong Kong.
